HEBRIDEAN ARTISTS
AN LANNTAIR'S ARTIST SUPPORT PROGRAMME BLOG

In the end

you will be grateful for what is left of a clean bed soft pillow for your head grateful for what is left of safe walking along a street across a beach beside the sea grateful for what is left of silence inside your head for what is left of daily bread for what is left of friends who stay friends lovers who stay lovers children who stay children grateful for what is left of duty you will be grateful for what is left of love and beauty
