THE ANGEL

Be Angel he said
make me a cup of tea.
She made it.

Be Angel he said
iron a shirt for me.
She ironed it.

Be Angel he said
listen to me.
She listened.

Be Angel he said
let me do the talking,
let me make decisions,
let me choose.
She let him.

Be Angel he said
make a home for me,
bear my sons for me,
always be there for me.
She was always there.

Be Angel he said
lie beneath me
in the life I have made for you.

She turned away
and as he watched...
she folded up her wings.
